

EDUCATION IS GREAT NEED IN NATION, SPEAKER STATES

Inspiring Address Is Made at
C. of C. Forum Last Night by
Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid

"America's Great Asset—Education," was the subject of an address delivered last night, before the Glendale Chamber of Commerce Forum at its March banquet, by Dr. Rufus B. Von Kleinsmid, president of the University of Southern California, who was introduced by Toastmaster Frank A. Parish, realtor, as "one of the leading citizens and one of the greatest organizers the west has known." Certainly he awakened the 200 and more people attending the meeting.

Speaking of Arizona, from whence the speaker recently has come, the toastmaster said it is "some state and it has some wonderful people, although you might not have said that ten or twenty years ago. We have one with us tonight who has helped put Arizona educationally on the map, just as Tom Campbell has put it on the map politically."

Big Price Is Paid
Launching into an eloquent appeal for greater education, the speaker of the evening said, in part:
"There are some things which we learned out of the war. I am glad to be able to say that, for, if an intelligent people pays such a woeful price as was paid in those years of suffering and bloodshed and horror in money and in youth, out of it all there must come something from which the world can profit."

"And probably to the American people there is nothing so outstanding as that there is value in training and in education. We were rather horrified and surprised that so large a per cent of our men were really unfit to bear the burdens of Ameri-

Mrs. Peter J. Erickson, of 2722

Mrs. Peter J. Erickson of 3723 Revere avenue entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tuch of Chicago, Ill., who are en route to their home after having made a trip around the world.

They went by way of Europe and the Orient and then to San Francisco. After visiting San Diego they will return to their home in the eastern city. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Clark, R. A. M.

rs. Tuck, Mrs. Charles Boolar, Mrs. David Anderson, Mrs. William Davies, Mrs. Selma Olson and the hostess, Mrs. Erickson. Masses of cactus blossoms were used for decoration throughout the house.

After luncheon a motor trip in and around Glendale was very much enjoyed. Mr. Tuch, who is a retired diamond merchant, was delighted with the beautiful surroundings of his city, likening it to Switzerland. With its background of mountains and homes built right up in the foothills. He was also greatly interested in the fine shops here and the envi-

HIGH SCHOOL STARS FAIRLY GLISTEN IN PLAYLETS

Clever Presentations of Trio of Skits to Be Repeated
by Students Tonight

ular scenario for Clara Kimball Young—but love is brought back into the home by Robert Fry who mends kitchen ware with a cold chisel and hearts with his homely philosophy.
"A thief doesn't expect gratitude," remarks Paul Hutchinson in "Sham" by Frank G. Tompkins, "but it does seem that he ought to get intelligent co-operation."

You ought to hear him call the lady of the house "Clara" in a friendly, sociable way, as though he had known her all his life when, as a matter of fact, her name isn't Clara at all but Dorothy—Miss Dorothy Pearl.

By the way, what does she say to her husband, Kenneth Jackson, after the curtain goes down? And how long does it take Paul Holland to get back to The Glendale Evening News with his "snootful" of news?

If you want to know why "The Mr. and Mrs." in this play are going to auction off their bric-a-brac and have their home done over in sure-nuf mahogany, you should see this.

Miss Mona C. Gardner, dramatic director, is receiving a great deal of praise today for the excellent and unsurpassable acting demonstrated by her pupils.

Music during the evening was furnished by the High School Orchestra, led by Miss Dora Gibson. Elgen Bengo's cornet solo in Wagner's "Evening Star" from "Tannhauser" was especially beautiful. Selections from Gounod's "Faust" prepared the audience for the entertainment.

Most of those who attended the plays last night agreed that any one of them would have been worth the price of admission. Today they are insisting that their friends shall go tonight.

American Legion Gets Benefit From Picture

Laughter, pathos and tragedy interwoven with consummate skill; acting so superb that the characters seem actually to live their parts, surprisingly beautiful settings and photography, and thrills that abound from start to finish; all these and more are found in Abel Gance's sensational film production, "I Accuse," which is the feature picture at the Glendale Theatre, as presented by the United Artists' corporation.

"I Accuse" is in no sense a war film, but rather an accusation and condemnation of all war and a 100 per cent argument teaching the lesson of peace, and particularly the proper care of the wounded American soldier by the government.

Vaudeville Program at T. D. & L Today

The acts which compose the vaudeville road show which Meiklejohn & Dunn are bringing to the T. D. & L. theatre today and Saturday are all possessed of unusual merit.

Headlining this show will be the dramatic playlet, "What's the Idea?" which was written by Florence Pierce Reed, a prominent newspaper woman of Los Angeles. Miss Reed has written a number of successful sketches, some of them having played the Orpheum circuit for years.

The Romano Sisters are two of the most beautiful girls in vaudeville. Not only have these girls beauty of form and unusual grace, but they are dancers of ability. They have played at Grauman's Million Dollar theatre in Los Angeles several times.

That singing comedienne, Rose Frazier, proves that it is possible to do many things and do them well. This dainty miss sings and tells stories in her inimitable style and in addition Miss Frazier plays a number of musical instruments.

On the screen, in addition to the five acts of unusual vaudeville, the feature photoplay, "The Invisible Fear," in which Anita Stewart is starred, will be shown.

WANTED: ACTORS, OLD AND YOUNG

W. H. ARMSTRONG SAYS:

There are several things to consider when buying a lot:

Beauty of View: Mountain View tract is admirably situated to command an unobstructed view of the Verdugo Mountains and the San Fernando Valley.

Accessibility: Mountain View is adjacent to the San Fernando Road, a direct artery to Los Angeles, and a choice of transportation is offered, either by motor, bus or Burbank P. E. line to Los Angeles.

Investment: Some lots are suitable for your own particular home, but are not particularly desirable, to most people, making them easy to sell. Mountain View lots are especially well located and have a decided resale value, and make an excellent investment, as their value will steadily increase.

Walking Distance of Industrial Section: Mountain View tract is within walking distance of the greatest industrial section in Southern California.

This subdivision includes all street work, water, light, gas, and is situated on the San Fernando Road, near Glendale City Limits, the tract office being nearly opposite the Burbank Milling Company.

SELECTS THIS CITY FOR BACKGROUND OF NEW FILM

Charles A. Taylor to Direct
'Old Lavender's Faith' in Glendale and Vicinity

Charles A. Taylor, who directed Oliver Morosco's "The Halfbreed," at Louis B. Mayer's studio in Los Angeles, has chosen Glendale and its picturesque surroundings for the background of his next production, entitled "Old Lavender's Faith," a wonderful story on the order of "The Miracle Man," it is said.

Introductory to this work, he will talk to actors, both young and old, and others interested in motion picture or stage productions, at the Pearl Keller studios, as announced elsewhere in tonight's issue. These talks will be free and introduce to the people here a character unique in the history of dramatic successes.

Will Never Grow Old

Although he is deaf—cannot hear his own voice—Director Taylor says: "I shall never grow old, know sorrow, pain or fear."

Of late years he has been devoting his time to motion pictures and has become a master of his art. He expects to stage many of the scenes of his new picture at his home in Sunland. His father and two sisters reside at 405 West Lomita avenue.

Laurette Taylor, his former wife; Nell Shipman, Joseph Santley and a host of others were brought to fame under Taylor's direction and a decade ago he was foremost producer of melodrama. A prodigious writer, a wonderful adventurer and a successful producer, Taylor stands today as a living lesson of what can be accomplished in spite of a great handicap.

Baby's Neck Broken, Yet She's Contented

A broken neck in a plaster cast which holds the entire upper part of her body rigid does not seem to interfere much with the contentment of Barbara Jean Stratford, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stratford of 1016 Virginia place.

Dr. J. E. Eckles of 125 1/2 North Brand boulevard stated that she was getting along very well and that as far as her actions were concerned a person would not know that anything was the matter with the baby. He said, however, that if the plaster cast should be removed it would not be more than half an hour before she would be screaming with pain.

This cast has now been in place almost three weeks and must remain in place another three weeks before it will be safe to remove it. The fact that the baby's seventh cervical vertebra has been broken as the result of a fall from a couch to the floor was established by the X-ray.

FAILS TO PUT UP CASH

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Officials of the shipping board were pleasantly surprised when they opened a bid for the 1,490 steel vessels composing the government's entire fleet and discovered that a man in North Dakota had offered $225,000,000 for the lot—an amount in excess of the board's expectations. The bidder, however, had failed to enclose cash to cover part of his offer as required by law.

Twenty-five bids have been received for the ships, which were originally worth $3,000,000,000. Action on the bids is being delayed due to the absence of Vice President Farley of the board, who is in Chicago.

Stop and Shop Is Pleased With Outlook

"We would rather have a hundred people come in and look around than five people come in and buy," remarked Jack Isles recently, commenting on the attractive class of feminine merchandise handled at 223 North Brand boulevard in the Stop and Shop store.

"A great many women are bashful and backward about coming into a new store," he continued. "They don't need to feel that way. We are very anxious that they should see the class of merchandise we are handling. They don't need to buy at all. 'Business has been good! Better than we expected.'"

This establishment opened last Saturday with a line direct from New York City.

WHAT IT COST OAKLAND

WASHINGTON, March 17.—It cost Oakland, California, $8,641,086 for the maintenance of its government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, the census bureau announced. This was a per capita cost of $38.74. The total revenue receipts for 1921 were $8,854,685, or $39.69 per capita, which made the per capita excess of revenue receipts over governmental costs for the fiscal year $.96.

GREAT DECLINE IN TAXES

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Income tax returns from 5,000,000 Americans, probably will show a decline of $1,000,000,000 in revenue from a taxable net income of individuals for 1921, treasury tax experts estimated today.

Total income taxes which will be paid this year, most of it in quarterly installments, will not fall far below $2,500,000,000 when all the collector records are complete and filed in Washington, officials said.

PROGRAM OF MUSIC WEEK PREPARED FOR THIS CITY

American Artists Will Have Prominent Places; County Observance Outlined

The plans for the successful observance of Music Week in Los Angeles county March 18 to 25 are taking definite shape and a real week of music in almost every city and town in the county is assured, according to Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of Glendale, who is the state director of extension for the California Federation of Music clubs and who is responsible for the music week idea.

The main object of music week is to bring music prominently to the fore and have programs of good music everywhere. They aim also to bring into the federation all of the unfederated music clubs in the county and to this end it is urged that each club double its membership at this time.

American music and American artists will have their turn if the federation has its way, for they ask that every church, club and school include American compositions and American artists upon their programs.

Music Day in Churches
Mrs. Grace Widney Mabey, who is the chairman in charge of the church music, has named Sunday, March 19, as music day in the churches, and urges every pastor to speak upon music, and every church choir have a special musical program on that day.

Mrs. Emma Bartlett, who is the chairman in charge of the music in the schools, has set aside Saturday, March 18, and Saturday, March 25, for special musical programs in the schools, both the grammar and high schools. Programs will also be given by the students to demonstrate the music in the schools to the community.

The president and all of the officers, directors and chairmen of committees of the board of the State Federation of Music clubs, as well as all of the presidents of federated music clubs in the county, have been drafted as speakers and will speak before the audiences during music week, setting forth the aims of the federation and the work they are accomplishing.

Glendale Is Prepared

The energetic city of Glendale whose musical activities are, to an extent, under the personal direction of Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, have their programs all prepared; they being the first city to report so far.

On Sunday night, March 19, a special musical program will be given by the choir of Ontario under the direction of Samuel Blakeslee, at the First Methodist church of Glendale.

On Thursday night, March 23, a program by the seven federated musical organizations of Glendale will be given at the Glendale High school, the solo artists being furnished by the Glendale Music club, which is one of the largest music clubs in the state.

On Friday afternoon, March 24, the Cadman trio consisting of Constance Balfour, Alma Geiger and Miss Garrett, will be featured by the Parent-Teachers' association at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium and will be for school children only. The trio will be featured at night by the Professional Women's club.

To close the week the Girls' Glee club of the Redlands university, under the direction of Charles Marsh, will give a concert. Every organization taking part in the week's celebration are members of the State Federation of Music clubs.

Charles Wakelind Cadman, who is director of education for the State Federation of Music clubs, will be signally honored, as his compositions will be featured by many of the artists appearing.

William Butterfield and Family Come Here

Mr. and Mrs. William Butterfield have leased the bungalow of Mrs. Stella Goodman at 309 Pioneer Drive, and with their seven-months-old daughter, Mary Ellen, have moved in and will make their home in Glendale for the present.

Mrs. Butterfield was Miss Marie Cheise Cellier and was a teacher of the French language in her native country when Mr. Butterfield went over with the Y. M. C. A., and, being very much interested in learning the language, became one of her pupils. They remained in France some time after their marriage and the baby daughter is a native of France.

Mr. Butterfield is now an importer of fine French hand-made lace with offices in Hollywood. He is a brother of Mrs. Ada Wood of 437 Pioneer Drive, but was living in Rockyford, Col., before he was sent abroad.

A man can't help feeling restless when his bills are unsettled.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry,
Avoid Exposure and Eat
Less Meat

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxins, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a table-spoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.---Advertisement.

TRAVEL, ADVENTURE, FICTION STORIES ARE RELEASED

Varied List of Volumes for Glendale's Reading Public
Offered at Library

If you are interested in inventions, home decoration, travel, adventure, music, story writing, store management, books of fiction or other subjects you will find volumes on these topics among the new books which have been released recently at the public library on Harvard street, the following being included in the offerings:

"The Book of Jack London," by his wife, Charmian London, in two volumes.

"Seeing the Far West," by John T. Paris. A panorama in text and illustration of the scenic glories of the states from the Rockies to the Pacific, and also interesting narrative recounting of bits of history and romance.

"The Art of Home Decoration," by Mary Harrod Northend. This book is divided into chapters which discuss the methods of furnishing and decorating different rooms. Such subjects as fireplaces, screens, windows, built-in furniture, glass doors and dressing tables each has a chapter devoted to them.

"Rhythm, Music and Education," by Emile Jacques-Dalcroze.

True, But Like Fairy Tale

"Adventures in Swaziland," by Owen Rowe O'Neil. A true story that reads like a fairy tale.

"Manual of the Trees of North America," by Charles Sprague Sargent.

"Phoebe Deane," by Grace Livingston Hill Lutz. A tense and charming love story.

"Love Stories," by Mary Roberts Rinehart. A collection of love affairs.

"Invention, the Master-Key to Progress," by rear-admiral Bradley A. Fiske, L.L.D., especially appealing to the enterprising man or boy with the active brain that finds its stimulus in unsolved problems.

"Westward Hoboes," by Winifred Hawbridge Dixon. Ups and downs of frontier motoring. An unusual story of an unusual journey.

"The Drama of the Forests," by Arthur Heming. The authentic, dramatic, pulsating story of Canada's northern wilds.

Story Deals With River

"Potomac Landings," by Paul Wiltach. The full story of one of America's most beautiful and historic rivers. The author tells the story of its discovery and explorations.

"The Romance of Russia," by Elizabeth W. Champney and Frere Champney.

"The Cruise of the Kawa," by Walter E. Traprock. Wanderings in the south seas. The highest ebb of hilarity is reached in this volume of supreme, superlative epic of the South Seas.

"Mysterious Japan," by Julian Street. A book in a popular vein, combining real substance in a light treatment.

"The Critic and the Drama," by George Jean Nathan. This book is a consideration of the aspects of the various theories and standards of criticism.

"How to Run a Store," by Harold Whitehead. A wise and witty record of small-store management.

"Handbook of Story Writing," by Blanche Colton Williams.

War Spirit Is Shown

"Marching Men," by Sherwood Anderson. Although dealing with a time of peace, this novel has as its motif the war spirit as applied to civic life.

"The Harp of Life," a play in three acts, by J. Hartley Manners.

"Once Abroad the Luggers," by A. S. M. Hutchinson. A delightful comedy of English life, written in the highest of spirits and in a vein of persistent humor.

"The Sheikh," by E. M. Hull. A passionate novel of love with the action of a western story and the glamor and color of the desert.

A group of five stories by William MacLeod Raine. "Ridgeway of Montana," "The High Grader," a breezy, pleasant and amusing story of Western life; "A Daughter of the Dons," a western story of romance and adventure; "The Pirate of Panama," a tale of old-time pirates and of modern love with adventure; "The Yukon Trail."

"The Lifted Cup," by Jessie B. Rittenhouse.

Nathan Rigdon Plans Court; Cost Is $50,000

Nathan Rigdon of 224 West Doran street, who has been identified with so much of the development of the northern section of the city, has just invested in two lots at the corner of Randolph street and Central avenue, and has already broken ground for one of the finest courts that has yet been built in Southern California. These homes will be finished with hollow tile exterior and the interior hard wood finish will be of blue gum. The bathrooms will be finished with tile.

Mr. Rigdon is a contractor and builder and has built and sold many homes in Glendale but is building this for income property. The cost when completed has been estimated at $45,000.

TROTZKY ISSUES WARNING

MOSCOW, March 17.—Leon Trotsky, soviet war minister, addressing a conference of soviet workers in this city celebrating the fifth anniversary of the Russian revolution, warned the Russians not to place hopes in the Genoa conference which "is looked upon by the enemies of Russia as the signal for an offensive."

Statement Is Issued Regarding Relief Work

"There is no connection whatever between the Near East Relief and the Soviet government of Russia or the Hoover American Relief operating in Russia."

This official statement has been received by Nathan Rigdon of 224 West Doran street, director of the Near East Relief campaign in Glendale, from Rev. R. W. Mottern of 211 North Adams street, district director.

"Hoover Russian Relief operations are confined to the Volga and Kuban regions in central Russia," remarked Rev. Mottern. Near East Relief operates in Palestine, Syria, Turkey and Trans-Caucasia, which includes Armenia. These two agencies are from 500 to 1000 miles apart.

"Near East Relief is concerned almost wholly with feeding the orphaned Christian children whose parents were victims of war and famine during the past five years. More than 130,000 are being cared for in Near East Relief institutions."

"Besides its regular orphanage work, the Near East Relief has found it necessary to care for tens of thousands of children whose parents fled last year from the central Russia famine region into Tiflis, Erivan and Alexandropol. This influx of starving people has made the orphan situation there the worst in the world."

Glen Eyrie Chapter to Banquet March 24

The members of Glen Eyrie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will entertain with a banquet at 6:30 o'clock Friday night, March 24, at the Masonic temple in honor of the official visit of the district deputy grand matron, Mrs. Alvarez of Los Angeles. Mrs. Fannie Mae Parke, worthy matron of the local chapter, states that members who wish to attend the banquet must make reservations by Tuesday, March 21.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGED

NEW YORK, March 17.—Charges of manslaughter will be entertained against four of the men concerned in the construction of the American theatre in Brooklyn which collapsed November 29. Chief Magistrate McAdoo announced in his report on results of the John Doe investigation of the building's collapse. Seven men lost their lives in the crash. Sylvester Rosenthal, Samuel Moskowitz, owners of the theatre; Joseph Gaydick, a contractor, and James M. Finley, were named by Magistrate McAdoo.

COMPLAINTS DISMISSED

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17.—The federal trade commission has announced that it had dismissed complaints of unfair competition against nine adding machine companies because of insufficient evidence. Among the companies was the Merchant Calculating Machine company of Oakland, Calif.

How Many Steps?

From Broadway and Brand to the Corner of Isabel and Broadway

A lot of Glendale folks say that if it were twice as far--it would still pay them to make the trip to the Glendale Hardware before buying their hardware.

Here Are a Few of Their Reasons:

At the Glendale Hardware:

- There is room enough for every line to be shown to best advantage. You can see what you want in this big store.
- Every line carried is gone into thoroughly. We carry all of it or none.
- Are shown more complete lines of hardware than at any other store in Glendale.
- The salesmen are always on their toes, eager to serve you. It is as great a pleasure to show goods as to sell them.
- There is a constant effort to bring prices down as fast as they are reduced to us.
- Therefore, if you need anything in Builders' Hardware, Lawn and Garden Tools, Kitchen or Household Utensils, Paints and Varnishes, Sporting Goods, etc., try the Glendale Hardware Co.

ITALY WOULD JOIN U. S. TO EXPLOIT GREAT MARKET

Fiume Episode Forgotten by Those Seeking to Secure Near Eastern Trade

BY EDWARD C. STRUTT
Written for International News Service
ROME—Italian industrialists are anxious to go into business with America for the exploitation of the Near-Eastern market. A plan which is common to many of the big manufacturers and Italian importers is to purchase raw materials in America and manufacture them in Italy and sell them to Turkey and the neighboring countries. Italy is without doubt the first western power in the hearts of the Turkish nationalists.

Italian ill-will against America, which arose to such a heat during the Fiume incident, has entirely died down. The Italians explain that their demonstrations were against Mr. Wilson, and not against the American people. But it is quite probable that their difficulties since with other nations have helped to efface the memories of Fiume.

Italy's Attitude Explained
Generally speaking, Italy's attitude to her neighbors may be described as follows:

America—Very friendly and anxious for close relations.

England—Indifferently friendly, with a recognition of the necessity of getting along with England, and of a limited economic dependency on the British Isles.

France—A very keen dislike, which in many quarters would merit an even stronger expression.

Germany—Italy has a keen appreciation that because of her own depreciated currency she must do business with Germany, whose low mark makes commercial relations possible. Fear that Germany is attempting to secure an economic domination of Italy keeps alive a distrust of her former enemy. But there is no feeling of hate such as is found in France.

Rather Sorry for Austria
Austria—Italy feels that Austria is down and out and is rather sorry for her former foe. The healing of the ancient sore is best evidenced by the fact that thousands of Austrian children were brought to Italy last summer and given care and good nourishment in Italian homes.

Jugo-Slovakia—Her eastern neighbor shares with France an occasional flare-up of Italian animosity, usually preceded by some international incident which has wounded Italy's pride.

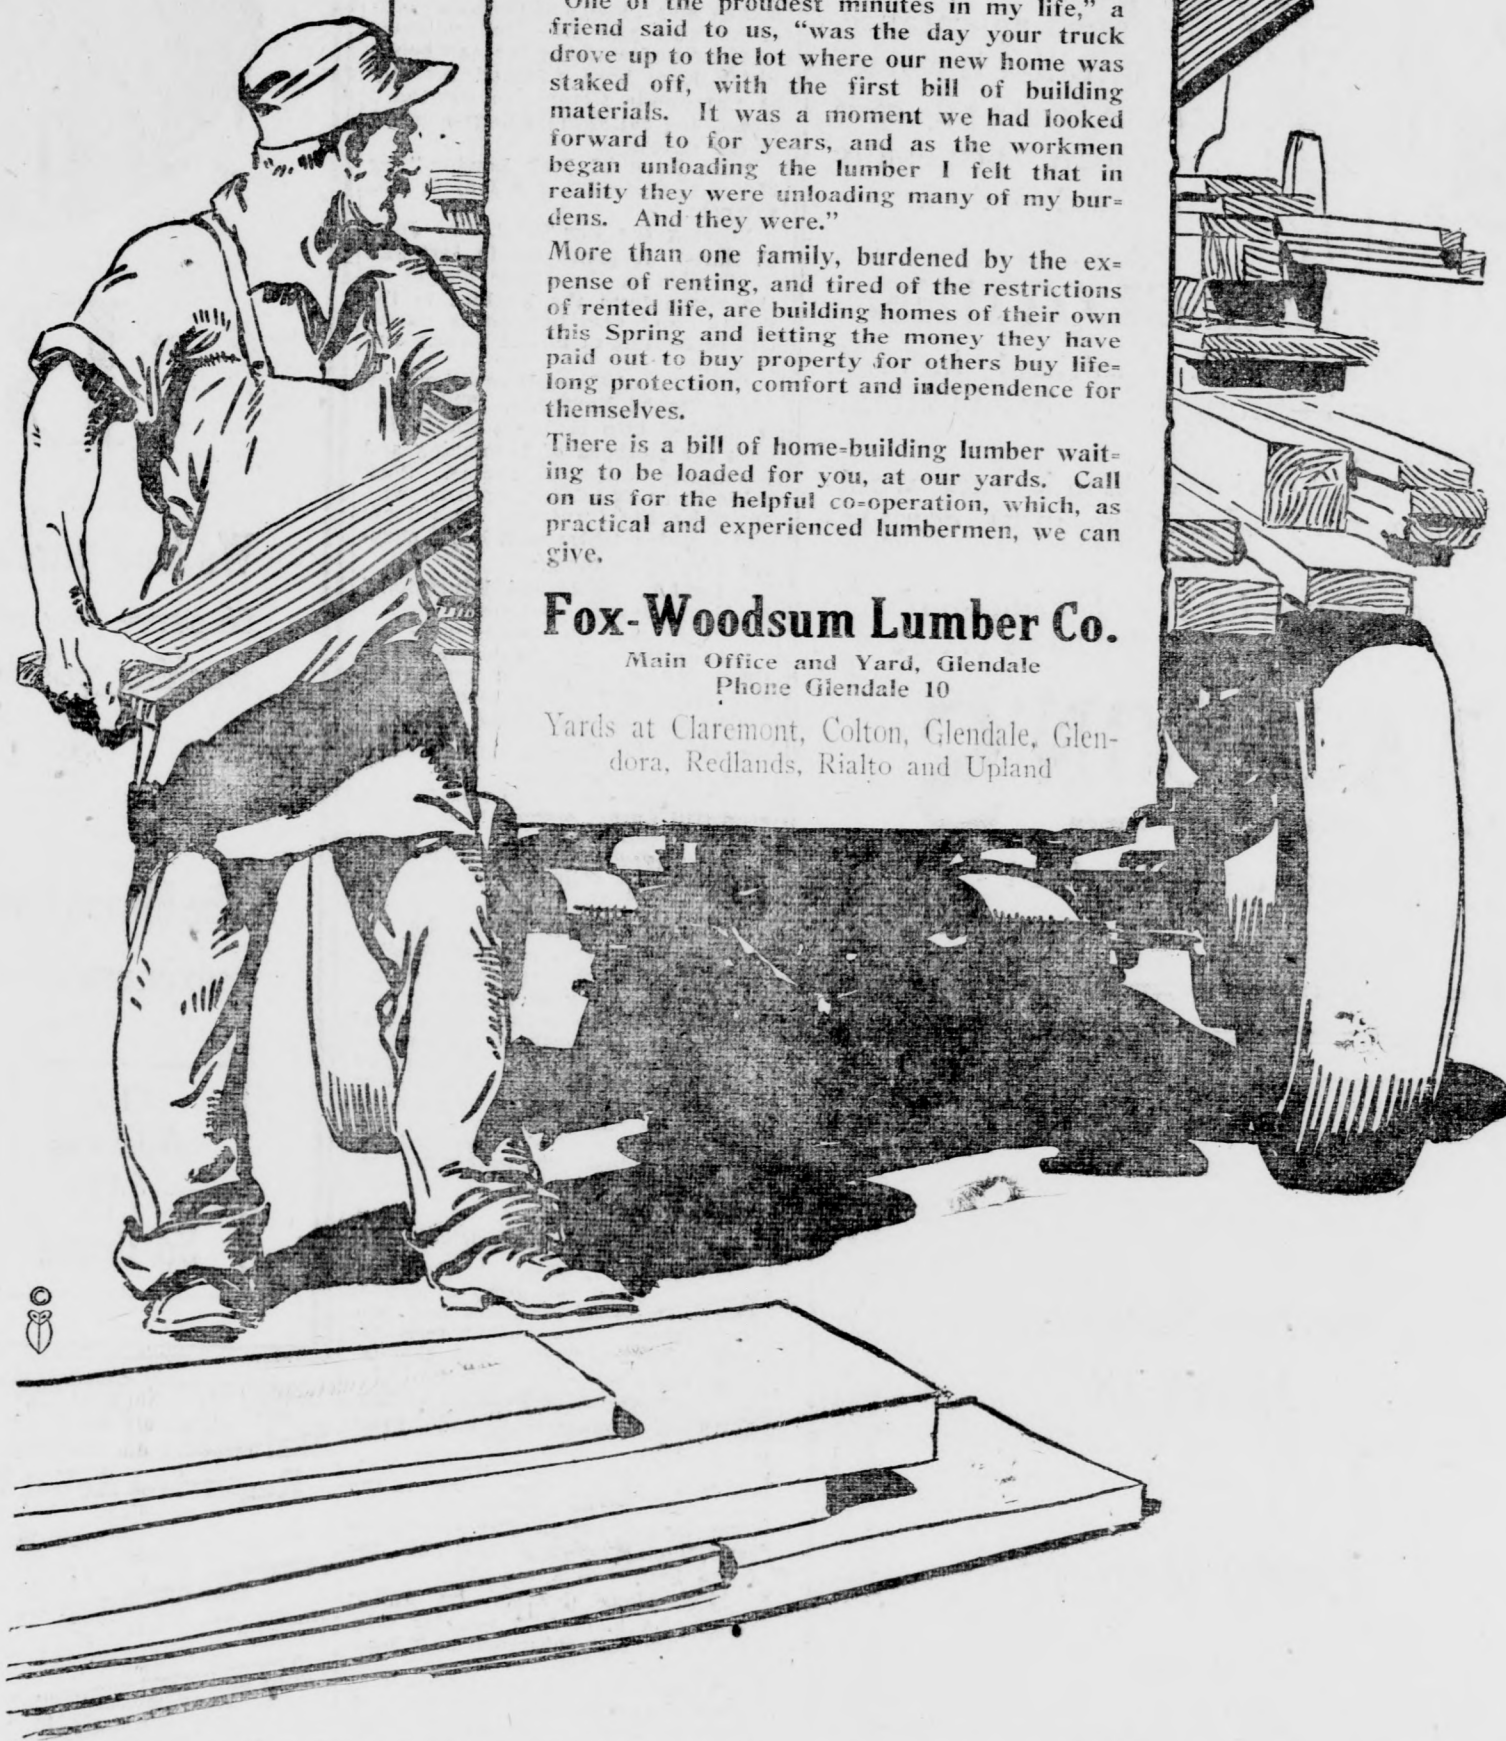

Greece—The feeling between the two countries has been anything but good, but the Greek Premier Gounaris' visit to Rome has done much to iron out the differences. If she has any feeling of affection for another power Italy is directing it, now at least, toward America.

Green Dance Will Be Given by Local Elks

Decorations, which will be pronounced unique when completed, are being put in place for the "Green Dance," to be given by the Glendale Lodge of Elks tomorrow night. The entertainment committee is in charge of this event, the personnel of which includes Joe E. Bellue, chairman; Jack Hearnshaw, W. B. Kelly, E. P. Hayward, Harry Whaley and Robert Jensen. Everything will be carried out in a color scheme of green, including the punch and refreshments of ice-cream and French pastries, as well as favors and decorations.

Health Situation in Glendale Very Good

The health situation in Glendale is much better, according to a statement made at the city hall by Dr. J. E. Eckles, health officer. He stated that the number of cases of "flu" has decreased to a couple of dozen, none of which seem very serious. He is very much pleased with the outlook.

Loading For You?

"One of the proudest minutes in my life," a friend said to us, "was the day your truck drove up to the lot where our new home was staked off, with the first bill of building materials. It was a moment we had looked forward to for years, and as the workmen began unloading the lumber I felt that in reality they were unloading many of my burdens. And they were."

More than one family, burdened by the expense of renting, and tired of the restrictions of rented life, are building homes of their own this Spring and letting the money they have paid out to buy property for others buy life-long protection, comfort and independence for themselves.

There is a bill of home-building lumber waiting to be loaded for you, at our yards. Call on us for the helpful co-operation, which, as practical and experienced lumbermen, we can give.

Intermediate Players Prepare for Baseball

The near approach of the indoor baseball season at the Intermediate school is bringing out a good many prospective players. The formal practice will not begin till the close of the track season, but several coming stars are beginning to show some luster in the noon games. Grant Abbott of the A-8-IV class, Vernon Boone of the A-8-III class and "Bud" Copeland of the B-8-III class are all working hard getting their pitching arms in good form. Jack Winger of the A-8-IV's, Homer Searles and Wallace Trau of the A-8-I's and Ed Carver of the A-8-II's are expected to star on their class teams. The A-8 class, however, will have some very hardy opponents in the B-8 class teams. George Butterly, "Bud" Copeland and Fred Lindhorst of the B-8-III's all have the stuff in them that promises to develop into first-class players. Charles Woodworth will probably pitch for the B-8-II class with Jack Booker, Len Leach and Darrel Korb and several other husky youngsters to back him up.

The seventh grade interclass indoor schedule began Wednesday with a spirited game between the B-7-I's and B-7-II's resulting in an easy victory for the B-7-II's, Fred Springer, who caught for the II's starring.

The opening game of the seventh grade girls' indoor schedule was played Wednesday between the A-7-I's and the B-7-III's. The A-7-I's won by a wide margin.

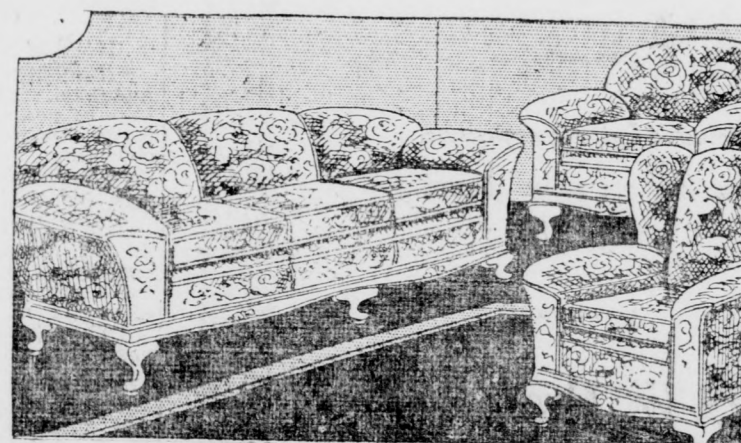

The official scorekeeper for the season in the girls' schedule will be Dorothea Landes.

Mrs. John Dean Here for Visit With Friends

Mrs. John Dean of Esimore arrived in Glendale Wednesday for a brief visit with Glendale friends and is the guest of Mrs. John W. Sharpe of 705 South Glendale avenue. Mrs. Dean was a resident of Glendale for five years, her former home being on North Central avenue.

Mrs. Dean today is the guest of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Godfrey of 325 North Orange street, and will make short visits with other friends. Several very delightful affairs have been planned to make her stay a pleasant one and all of her old friends are delighted to welcome her back to Glendale.

If we were all born again we'd make the same mistakes.

You Seldom See Furniture Like This

Never has there been shown in Glendale a parlor suite equal to this one in beauty and serviceableness. The upholstery is of hand blocked mohair—soft, and with a delightful silken lustre; it will wear and retain its coloring for a lifetime. A delicately tinted flowered pattern is traced in the hand-woven mohair and the suite is of three pieces with removable cushions on arms and seats.

This suite is truly a most remarkable product of a master workman's art, and must be seen to be appreciated. Come in and see it. The price is surprisingly low. We are offering some exceptional values in parlor furniture.

Business of Peace to Be Keynote of Big National Convention of Y. W. C. A. Workers

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—The Seventh National Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association will be held at Oaklawn Park, Hot Springs, Arkansas, from April 20 to April 27. Aside from business, the purpose of the meeting is to study the place of the organization in the community today, particularly as to its responsibility to women and girls. In addition to this a series of addresses will be given on "Internationalism" in its various phases by speakers of international reputation.

The convention will be formally opened on the evening of April 20. Mrs. Frederick Paist, of Philadelphia, president of the convention, who will preside pro tem, will give the opening address. Mrs. Paist was elected to the presidency of the National Association at the Cleveland convention. She has been actively interested in the Y. W. C. A. since her undergraduate days at Leland Stanford University, where she was president of the College Association.

On the second day of the convention A. Maude Royden, England's famed preacher and leader of women, will give the first of a series of lectures on "The Christian Way of Life," designed to show how girls and women should live in every relation—personally, socially, family and internationally.

"Facing the Present"

Mrs. Robert E. Spear, of New York, president of the National Board, and Miss Mabel Cratty, the general secretary, will both talk. The former will give a resume of the work done during the past two years, while Miss Cratty's subject will be "Facing the Present," which will be a consideration of the Y. W. C. A. in our modern community.

"Internationalism" or "The Business of Peace" has been divided into three topics—between nations, between races and in our workaday life. The first will be interpreted by Charlotte Niven, of London, general secretary of the World's Committee; Countess Helen Goblet d'Alviella, of Belgium; Anne Lamb, an Anglo-Indian, of Calcutta, and Judge Florence Allen, of Cleveland, the first woman judge of Common Pleas Court in the United States. The second by Bishop Robert E. Jones, of New Orleans, and Mrs. Luke G. Johnson, of Atlanta, and the third by Professor Eduard C. Lindeman, of the North Carolina College for Women.

Students Co-operate

Meeting simultaneously with the general convention will be the National Student Assembly. Miss Emily Gordon, of Wellesley, national chairman of the Field Council, will open the assembly. For the first time in the history of the student movement, a national president will be elected, and the future plans and policies of the students will be in their own hands. One of the afternoon sessions of the National Convention will be completely turned over to the Student and Industrial groups. Miss Mildred Welch, of Boston University, is chairman of the executive committee of the National Student Assembly.

Fully 1,500 delegates will attend. About 200 of these will be from the leading colleges and universities of the United States. Arkansas is making elaborate preparations to entertain visitors, the whole state joining in with Hot Springs.

S. M. Newmark Returns From European Visit

That the business situation is steadily improving, and that the upward trend along the principal lines of trade will continue during the year 1922, is the opinion of S. M. Newmark, pioneer coffee roaster and importer of southern California, who has just returned from a five months' European trip.

While in the east, Mr. Newmark had an opportunity to study conditions at first hand in the big industrial centers, and returns to the Pacific coast, brimful of progressive ideas.

While sitting in a famous New York coffee house one day, and what more natural than that Mr. Newmark should choose to lunch at a cafe celebrated for its exceptional coffee, Mr. Newmark noted the keen, alert business men who thronged the place during the noon hour; it was apparent that this place was a rendezvous for many of them, as the friendly groups in earnest conversation testified. Then he queried: "Why do these men come here day after day, when there are a score of other eating houses within easy access, and where the menu offers far greater variety?" Like a flash the solution came: "Because this is the best coffee house in this part of New York." That was it; men whose time was worth many dollars an hour would willingly sacrifice the extra minutes required, so that they might enjoy the most delicious coffee procurable.

Then Mr. Newmark had one of those inspirations that characterizes the man of business who is ever on the lookout for merchandising ideas. Said he: "There are thousands of Californians who have been drinking 'Newmark's coffee' for the past twenty-eight years, because they are convinced that it is the most delicious coffee which they can obtain. There are other thousands, however, of all the multitudes which are being irresistibly drawn to our sunny Southland who have never even tasted the delights of 'Newmark's coffee.' To them, then, I will give a celebration such as has never been known in coffee-dom. I will decree a 'Newmark's Coffee Week,' during which time thousands of cans of Newmark's high grade coffee will be given away to housewives in Glendale and a score of other leading cities. This will be an event of double significance; first, it is a token of how glad I am to be home again; and second, it will afford coffee lovers throughout a vast area the opportunity to know good coffee."

Edna Palmer Injured, Treated at Hospital

Edna, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Palmer of North Glendale avenue, was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium hospital as the result of a wound received while playing about a street scraper.

A major operation was performed at the hospital upon Mrs. Charlotte Stuckwisch of 204 West Seymour street, Eagle Rock.

A minor operation was performed there upon Miss Nellie Messenger of 227 North Isabel street.

Garbage Tags Go on Sale for Next Quarter

Garbage tags for the next quarter are now on sale in the public service department at the city hall. Although they will not be needed until after the first of the month, J. F. McIntyre, agent of this department, called attention this morning to the fact that buying these tags now will prevent congestion the first part of the quarter.

RED PEPPER FOR COLDS IN CHEST

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.—Advertisement.

MARY MINTER TO ORIENT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—With every attempt at secrecy which almost succeeded in permitting her to sail without recognition, Mary Miles Minter, motion picture actress, sailed for the Orient on the Matson liner Wilhelmina. She was booked under the name of Miss J. B. Shelby and was accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Miles.

She declined to make any statement, but she said she and her grandmother were both worn out and were seeking rest. She refused to give out her itinerary, but it is understood she will stop at Honolulu later proceeding to the Orient. She has been in seclusion at her Los Angeles home since the death of William Desmond Taylor, noted film director, over whose death she expressed great grief.

PLAN ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

PACIFIC MAIL CHAIRMAN

NEW YORK, March 17.—Directors of the Pacific Mail Steamship company have elected George J. Baldwin, president of the company for the last six years, to the newly created office of chairman of the board. Gale H. Carter, a director since last September, was elected president.

M. C. Brush, senior vice president of the American International Corporation, and Lawrence H. Sherman, were chosen as directors to succeed Maurice Bouvier and N. Detombe, resigned. A. G. Bates resigned as treasurer and H. S. Brophy, assistant treasurer for the last five years, was elected to the vacancy.

The traffic department of the company announced inauguration of a direct passenger and freight service between San Francisco and the Philippines, via Honolulu. The first boat in the service, the Creole State, will sail April 27.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The extremely hurried Charles W. Paddock, of the Pacific coast, a gentleman of comparatively no leisure whatever, may yet find it expedient to move those flying shanks of his just a bit faster before the impending track season passes on.

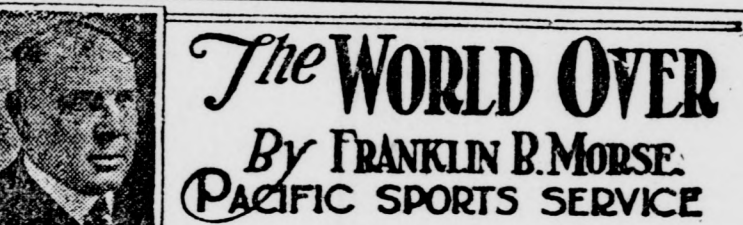

Six months ago Paddock was supreme among the world's sprinters; today his supremacy is in nowise questioned, but it is altogether probable that in the immediate future his speed afoot will be questioned.

Having said that much, we will go further and respectfully submit for consideration the name of Bob McAllister, New York policeman, whom the writer considers the most promising sprinter in the world today.

McAllister "broke his novitiate," as the saying goes, less than six months ago. Yet at this very moment he is rated above Jackson Scholz, Bernie Wefers, Jr., Eddie Farrell and others as the fastest man in the local district, and a recent set of games he lent authority to his belief by running 150 yards on the boards in 14.3 seconds, a world's indoor record.

At intermediate distances he was caught in 10.3-5 seconds for 110 yards, which means 9.4-5 for the century; 11.4-5 seconds for 120 yards and 12.3-5 seconds for 130 yards.

These performances were made without spikes on an armory drill floor that afforded all the spring and

There is an old adage to the effect that two wrongs do not constitute a right, and this same little maxim should be whispered by somebody into the ear of one Billy Gibson, the manager of lightweight boxing champion Benny Leonard.

Gibson proclaims loudly that Leonard never again will give Lew Tendler another chance to win the lightweight title for the reason that Tendler's manager had the temerity to collect the forfeit put up by Gibson to guarantee the appearance of his champion at a recent match. Inasmuch as forfeits are put up for the express reason of being collected in the event that the poster fails to put in an appearance, and in view of the fact that Leonard failed to put in an appearance, the fellow on the outside may be pardoned if he does not exactly understand where "things are at."

Gibson claims that Tendler showed poor sportsmanship because he collected the forfeit in the face of the fact that Leonard had broken his thumb and obviously was unable to enter the ring. Perhaps Tendler might have been a little more magnanimous, but he was strictly within his rights and, as far as the writer is concerned, did what he should have done. Injuries are the easiest things in the world to fake, and while there is no imputation that Leonard was not entirely on the square, forfeits, when posted, should be lived up to.

Therefore, if there is any unsportsmanship to complain about, the charge may be preferred on Gibson, who is without a vestige of right in the stand which he is said to have

Announcement of the fabulous compensation Babe Ruth, the home-run king, will receive for his service with the Yankees of the American league, has started speculation as to how far-reaching the matter of high salaries will become. Pursues which many consider all out of proportion for the service rendered have been awarded prize ring men for a number of years.

It is a certainty that no employer or promoter is granting emoluments running into the tens and thousands of dollars for the mere fun of it. He is getting his quid pro quo, and there is a saying that a man is worth what he is able to bring into the treasury either through his earning or drawing capacity.

With the wonderful growth of golf and the intense interest that is being taken all over the world in this sport, the question has arisen as to the probable increase in the size of salaries and prizes for the competing professionals of the first order. Will the time come when professional golfers will be getting ten thousand dollars more?

Golf, no doubt, paid higher salaries than any other sport in the days gone by but it has, thus far fallen back in the race. Nor was this entirely confined to salaries, but in prize money. As far back as 1849 when Allen Robertson and Tom Morris beat the Dunn Brothers at Musselburgh, the stake was two thousand dollars. In computing this it must be taken into consideration that in those days this amount far exceeded the same amount today with the tremendous advance in all costs.

The news of the world tournament for many years carried from $2000 to $2500 in prize money. Prize money ranging from $1000 to

ANNUAL A. A. U. DUEL GIVES CHANCE TO DECIDE CHAMPS

Rival Squads of Athletes to Clash April 8; L. A. Seeks Great Olympic Games

By HOWARD M'GILLIS

With last Saturday's scheduled dual track meet between the University of Southern California and Occidental college postponed on account of rain and the subsequent announcement that the two teams will be unable to arrange a meet this season, the 1922 Southern California track championship will probably never be definitely decided, although the rival squads will have a chance to partially decide their grudge in the annual A. A. U. meet on April 8.

This bit of fate is keenly felt by the students of both institutions. It is a particularly bitter pill for the Oxy followers to swallow. For the first time in years the Tiger cinder representatives this season have an aggregation of which they can justly be proud, and to have a meet called off with such an ancient and bitter rivalry as U. S. C. at this most opportune occasion is enough to cause a slight feeling of anguish in the minds of even the most law-abiding citizens.

L. A. Wants Olympic Games
 Southern California's sport-loving public and even that of the entire country is keenly following up the recent report that the 1924 Olympic games may be conducted in Los Angeles. Should the international affair take place here, it would be the means of giving the southland more advertising than it has ever gotten from any single project, according to numerous sport followers all over the nation.

Robert S. Weaver of Los Angeles, president of the Southern Pacific branch of the Amateur Athletic union, is the leading figure in the campaign that is being waged to bring the games to Los Angeles.

Dr. Wharton to Aid Bears
 Coach Andy Smith of the University of California's championship football team has recently been notified that he will have an additional assistant next season in the person of Dr. C. M. "Buck" Wharton, assistant director of physical education of the University of Pennsylvania for the past several years.

Dr. Wharton will be a familiar figure to some of the real "old timers" of the gridiron game who followed the sport between the years of 1895 and 1900. He was placed as a guard on the All-American team for 1895 and 1896.

Six Boxing Bouts
 With six bouts scheduled for tonight's U. C. U. S. C. fight card at the University of Southern California gymnasium, the affair promises to be the most attractive intercollegiate boxing exhibition ever staged in Los Angeles. The Trojans, with two state champions performing for the Cardinal and Gold, will have the best chance of the year for an athletic victory over their Bear opponents, and it is generally considered that they will be the favorites. The probable list of bouts is as follows:

At 175 pounds—G. Brenton (Cal.) vs. H. Pythian (U. S. C.)
 At 155 pounds—Jimmy Cline (Cal.) vs. Gus Covillo (U. S. C.)
 At 145 pounds—Bill Fairbanks (U. S. C., state champion), vs. Walt Robinson (Cal.)
 At 140 pounds—Harold Galloway (U. S. C.) vs. Bernie Garcia (Cal.)
 At 135 pounds—Eddie Mathis (U. S. C., state champion), vs. Ben Enzib (Cal.)
 At 122 pounds—Isaac Gillette (U. S. C.) vs. S. Silverman (Cal. state champion).

EDUCATION IS GREAT NEED IN NATION, SPEAKER STATES

Inspiring Address Is Made at
C. of C. Forum Last Night by

class of deficient who need to be dragged along.

"Now, out of this classification we are told that the white citizenship of America, called upon to render their service in the days of war, there were 25 per cent illiterate! An astounding fact. It is true since that time, in a review of tests and figures, there are those among us who say that the story was not painted dark enough.
There is not 33 per cent in the hour of necessity who can bear the burdens of citizenship in a democratic country like ours."

Not First, He Says
Dr. Von Kleinsmid then pointed out where illiteracy was to be found and then took up, point by point, the many misconceptions the American holds of his country's standing in the world today.

"First in science?" he asked. "No, she isn't. First in art? We still go beyond the Atlantic. In music? We still go to the fountains of the Old World. No one says the United States is first in engineering. No. We have built the Brooklyn bridge and the Panama canal, but the accomplishments of other nations stand side by side."

"In education? We do not stand as one of the greater nations of the world. I should prefer to think that we are first, but we are not. And if the nations of the world were to march before us, she would not lead.
America would be ninth among the nations of the world in percentage of her illiteracy."

Of Right Character
And therein lay the plea, the speaker saying:

"While I plead for education, it must be that character of education that will hold before the nations of the world that gleaming light of virtue and truth. This is the greatest democratic republic the world has ever known."

"I say to you as American citizens that you are the state and I tell an eternal verity. Every man who enjoys suffrage is the state. If you do not like this state, you are the fault. The success and prosperity and future safety of a democracy of our sort depends on the intelligence and education of our citizens."

"I like the 'ragadocto' of Americans. We laugh at ourselves, and quite appreciate the viewpoint of others. And we have become so accustomed to the use of superlatives, especially in this part of the country, that superlatives have become of little value."

The speaker told the story of the educated foot tramp, and continued to his point:

"We love this old nation of ours, and there is nothing we love more dearly to talk about than the enlightenment and education of its citizenship. And it is through educational process that our nation shall learn to think."

They Can But Don't
"The difference between lower animals and man is not that the former do not think, but that man is capable of it. And there are scores of us who never indulge."

Gullibility, crime, the effects of war were taken up in a kaleidoscopic procession by the speaker as demonstrating the crying need for education and, in closing, he said:

"I wonder how much longer we are going to be able to sing, 'My Country 'Tis of Thee' with the same vim and earnestness? In order to do so I think the years are turning seriously to the thought, 'Our Father's God to Thee . . . Protect Us by Thy Might.'"

Led by the Madrigal club, which furnished the musical program, the audience sang the first and last stanzas of "America." The club also sang two numbers with Mrs. Helen MacMullin as soloist, which were highly appreciated. Mrs. A. M.
Draper sang two Irish love songs for which she was generously ap-

TELLS ABOUT HER EXPERIENCES IN LEGISLATURE

Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, One of First Women Elected in State, Talks to Club

 lars annually for making homeless possible for children and millions more that the home may be protected," she said.

"Again, the laws of the state, alone, can protect the home from many of the evils of drugs, liquor and countless other forms of immorality. There is but one agency that can adequately handle the situation and that agency is the state," said Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Hughes was very emphatic in a statement "that any individual or group of individuals, who, in these enlightened days, advocates the cutting down of the age for compulsory education to 14 years are exploiters of child labor."

Two Great Problems
 She called attention to the laws so necessary for the protection of the farmer, comparing the appropriations with the value of farm products and touched next upon the two great problems which California has yet to solve—flood control and irrigation.

"Land that was worth $25 an acre
 under the old flood days is worth $250 to $1000 after the floods have been controlled."

"We are facing a new era, and are about to enter the period of the world's greatest expansion with a new center of radiating civilization, the Pacific ocean. California is the great leader in this great movement," she concluded.

At the close of the program a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments of home-made cake and chocolate served by the hostesses for the afternoon. Mrs. E. J. Morgan, Mrs.
 Sarah Skelton and Mrs. J. H. Cuningham.
